EDITORIAL

PROF. (DR.) DEEPAK BHIKAJI MANE
Editor-in-Chief, IJEMS

As we step into another significant milestone with the publication of Volume 14, Issue 01 (Jan-Mar 2025) of the International Journal of Research Pedagogy and Technology in Education & Movement Sciences (IJEMS), I extend my warmest congratulations to all researchers, scholars, and contributors whose efforts have made this issue possible.

Our journal remains steadfast in its mission to provide a credible and impactful platform for high-quality academic research. Since its inception, IJEMS has been committed to fostering intellectual growth and disseminating valuable knowledge across the domains of pedagogy, education, and movement sciences. The journey so far has been remarkable, and each issue we publish is a testament to our unwavering dedication to academic excellence.

For this issue, we received a total of 13 submissions. Following a rigorous and meticulous peer-review process, 10 papers have been accepted for publication, ensuring that only the most relevant and high-quality research reaches our readers. This acceptance rate reflects our continued emphasis on upholding integrity, originality, and scholarly contribution of the journal.

Maintaining ethical publication standards and improving research quality remain our top priorities. To further enhance our review process and ensure fairness and transparency, we continue to update and expand our Editorial Board. The addition of new Editors and Referees strengthens our ability to evaluate submissions rigorously, thereby maintaining the high academic standards that IJEMS is known for.

I take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to all authors, reviewers, and members of the editorial team for their invaluable contributions. Your dedication, hard work, and commitment play a crucial role in the continued success and growth of IJEMS. As we look ahead, we remain committed to advancing research and innovation, striving to make significant contributions to the academic community.

We invite researchers and scholars to continue submitting their groundbreaking work to IJEMS and to join us in our endeavor to promote excellence in research.

With warm regards,
Prof. (Dr.) Deepak Bhikaji Mane
Editor-in-Chief, IJEMS
